Message from the Premier

Welcome to the Newfoundland Symphony Orchestra’s 2022-23 Diamond Anniversary season! The Newfoundland Symphony Orchestra has been a cultural hallmark of our province for 60 years, and the Government of Newfoundland and Labrador is proud to support this season as part of our Come Home 2022 celebrations. Year after year, music lovers have been entertained by memorable and outstanding performances by skilled musicians, and this anniversary season promises to be no different with an exciting and diverse line-up. The Newfoundland Symphony Orchestra has received numerous accolades over the years, deservedly earning its place as one of our province’s most respected educational and cultural institutions. I commend the devoted board members, donors, sponsors, and you, for your ongoing support. Best of luck on a spectacular season and please enjoy the show!

Hon. Andrew Furey, Premier

Message from the Mayor

On behalf of Council, it is my pleasure to congratulate the Newfoundland Symphony Orchestra on its 60th Diamond Anniversary, Celebrating the 60-year history with reflections on the past and tributes. The City of St. John’s is a proud supporter of the arts and of this vibrant organization. With multiple performances every season, the educational experiences and entertainment provided to all ages is amazing. This season promises to entertain like no other and we are extremely fortunate to have talented musicians as the heartbeat of our musical community whom are there to share their talent and love of music with us all. The NSO board, staff, volunteers and sponsors work diligently each and every year to bring these shows to our community. Allow me to express my appreciation for your hard work and dedication and thank you for the significant contributions you make to the truly unique culture of our City. Best wishes -

Danny Breen,
Mayor

Message from the Lieutenant Governor

As Patron of the Newfoundland Symphony Orchestra, I welcome you to the 2022-23 season, Celebrating 60 Years. As we celebrate its diamond anniversary, the NSO is known and appreciated for firstclass entertainment featuring some of the most talented musicians, not only in our province, but our country and beyond. The orchestra has enriched the lives of Newfoundlanders and Labradorians by performing a wide spectrum of music through live performances in our province. Patrons of all ages and backgrounds have enjoyed the myriad of excellent performances over the years. As an advocate of the arts, I congratulate the NSO on this milestone in its history, as it continues to evolve into a musical entity rivaling the best in Canada. May your past successes be followed by many more as you continue to entertain and delight your audiences.

Judy M. Foote P.C., O.N.L.
Lieutenant Governor

About the Atlantic String Quartet: Formed in 1985, the Atlantic String Quartet (ASQ) is a versatile and professional chamber ensemble comprised of the principal string players of the Newfoundland Symphony Orchestra (NSO): Heather Kao, first violin; Nancy Case-Oates, second violin; Kate Read, viola; and Nathan Cook, cello. In addition to their work with the full orchestra and NSO Sinfonia, the quartet produces its own Recital Series each season, presenting a broad selection of works from the rich quartet and small ensemble repertoires. The ASQ is an integral part of the creative life of its community and is known for its versatility and ability to work with music and musicians from all styles and genres. Having shared the stage with such international classical musicians as Anton Kuerti, André Laplante, and Martin Beaver, and local artists such as jazz artist Duane Andrews and renowned songwriter Ron Hynes, the members of the quartet also teach privately, and coach and conduct other ensembles. In 2014, the ASQ was offered a placement at the prestigious St. Lawrence String Quartet Music Seminar in Stanford, CA. In 2020 the quartet released its first self-titled debut album featuring works by Arthur Bliss and Maurice Ravel.
