About Best Kind Productions

We are a theatre company based in St. John's, Newfoundland.

We produce high quality musicals and plays with an outside-the-box sensibility.

We are an incubator for the development of new Canadian musical theatre, contributing to the artistic landscape of our province.

We are committed to nurturing imagination, commitment, and kindness in our province's youth, through performance and educational experiences.

We are community builders, bringing great people together to collaborate and dream.

We are Best Kind.

Kyle McDavid (writer/director, "Cubicle") (he/him) is a producer, director, writer/composer, educator, and graphic designer. As Founder and Co-Artistic Director of Best Kind Productions, he has produced 40+ events over the past twelve years, including mainstage musicals, outdoor kids musicals (upcoming Summer 2023 production of The SpongeBob Musical is coming to the Bowring Park Amphitheatre in August!), cabarets, readings, and workshops. Kyle is a graphic designer for the NSO and has written original scripts for family pops concerts, as well as Harmony in Ulliasuk (with Deantha Edmunds) for the 2023 Labrador tour. He has music-directed many shows including Fun Home, Second Shot: The Curling Musical, [title of show], Urinetown, The Fantasticks, Billy Bishop Goes to War, Chicago, Little Shop of Horrors, and more. As a musical theatre writer/composer, Kyle has written original musicals including Impresario, How Do You Get to Jellybean Row?, Sidewalk Dandelion (commissioned for Shallaway Youth Choir's neurodiverse ensemble, Lauda), The 18: A Come Home Year Celebration Concert of Remembrance, and more.
