

Melanie is a singer, songwriter & actor based in St. John's, Newfoundland. She is Sheridan College Honours Graduate & scholarship recipient and MusicNL award winner. Past credits include, The Rocky Horror Show, Our Divas Do Christmas, Jesus Christ Superstar, Alice And Wonderland and more. She released her debut album of original music in 2016 and toured across Atlantic Canada. She is part of the stylized duo, The Duds with Philip Goodridge and in 2020 they released their first EP. They have since released several singles including a Holiday collection, available on streaming platforms along with her solo work.

Melanie is currently a resident artist with Terra Bruce Productions. She played Liza in “No Change in the Weather” and recently, Princess Hiya in new musical, “The Wild Rovers”. Melanie is absolutely delighted to be singing with the Newfoundland Symphony Orchestra!