

Originally from Kitchener, Ontario, FRANK FUSARI has been living and working as a musician in St. John's Newfoundland since 1995. Frank is the principal double bassist in the Newfoundland Symphony Orchestra and has been with Spirit of Newfoundland since the year 2000.

He has performed with many Newfoundland songwriters and musicians including The Atlantic String Quartet, Terra Bruce Productions, Shelley Neville, Alan Doyle, Shallaway, Pat Boyle, Sandy Morris, Opera on The Avalon, Artistic Fraud of Newfoundland, Duane Andrews, Sean Panting, and many others.

In the summer 2023 Frank played electric bass in the musical 'Come from Away' in Gander. Frank also plays the theremin, and the accordion.