

Grant King Bio

Grant King holds a Bachelor's degree from Berklee College of music, Boston, MA and a Masters degree from Longy School of Music, Cambridge, MA. His guitar trio, Big Space, won the 2023 ECMA for jazz recording of the year. He also takes on sideman duties for artists like Kellie Loder, Tim Baker, and has been a member of the Pathological Lovers and the Monday Nights. He has scored several films and tv shows and won best score at the Atlantic and Nickel film festivals for his score of Jordan Canning's film Not Over Easy. He is currently the senior sound and music producer for M5 the agency, where he has composed and produced countless pieces for ads. Grant has also performed in many theatre productions including JCS, Rent, We Will Rock You, and several others, as well as several productions with the Newfoundland Symphony Orchestra.