

Thrilled beyond words to be singing these Queen tunes, alongside these singers, and with this orchestra and band, Vicki Harnett most certainly needs help in counting all the beautifully lucky stars that aligned to make this Winter Pops possible!

A Resident Artist with Terra Bruce Productions, Vicki was last seen in their production of "The Wild Rovers", as well as "Christmas At The Majestic". She had the pleasure of singing with the NSO in the 2023 Big Ticket: The Music of The Night, and will be back again for this year's Big Ticket: A Night At The Oscars. Many thanks to everyone, onstage and off, who helped to bring this evening together, and to her nearest and dearest for their love and support.
