

Bob MacDonald has been warming hearts with his superb vocals for over thirty years. Whether playing the circuit with the Bob Macdonald Band, appearing live at the Arts and Culture Center, or in the intimate surroundings of a solo nightclub performance, Bob is always a crowd pleaser. Bob MacDonald's albums include: The seasonal favourite "Christmas with Class" A country recording "I've Known It All Along", and a collection of favourite Newfoundland songs "Gold in the Water".

Bob MacDonald has been an active member of the Newfoundland music scene since 1968. He presently plays the nightclub circuit doing solo gigs and gigs with The Bob MacDonald Band and plays corporate and private parties. Throughout his career Bob has performed with numerous musical groups ranging from Jazz to Folk to Country. Through this experience Bob has compiled a strong and musical repertoire