

Erin Winsor was born and raised in St. John's, NL. She is a graduate of CNA: Executive Administration Program and Sheridan College: Musical Theatre Performance Program; she recently became a Certified Dementia Care Provider™ and is currently studying to become an End-of-Life Doula. Erin now uses her compassionate heart and musical skills working in a long-term care home. Erin has been performing with Spirit of Newfoundland since 2013 and has been seen in a variety of musicals in Newfoundland and Toronto including Mary Poppins (Theatre St. John's), Les Misérables (Atlantic Light), Into the Woods (Hart House), Kinky Boots (TaDa) and recently created and performed in By the Sea, a musical, sensory experience for people living with dementia (Old School). Erin is the Co-Founder and Executive Director of Old School Intergenerational Projects, a charitable organization that creates opportunities for generations to connect through arts programs and performances. She is passionate about using the arts as a tool to help maintain wellness, fight ageism, support dementia care, offer inclusive opportunities, and connect generations.
