

Tessa has been singing most of her 75 years. Her first public appearance was on VOXM's Uncle Harry Brown Talent Show. In the 60's and 70's she appeared in many Musical Theater productions, such as Music Man with Gordon Pinsent, Fiddler on the Roof, South Pacific. To name a few. After a 20 year hiatus she returned to the stage in TADA's production of Cabaret. Tessa helped kick start the campaign of refurbishing the Holy Hearty Theater in SGM's production of Steele Magnolia's. She has been the opening act for TADA's Our Divas Do Christmas for the past 19 years. Tessa is delighted to once again be invited to sing with the NSO.
