

Craig Sharpe is a Canadian pop singer who was the runner-up on Canadian Idol season 4, having finished second place by 3%, said to have been the closest voting in Idol History. Known for his wide vocal range and ability. Sharpe released two nationwide albums in 2007 and 2014. Sharpe has performed with artists such as Tony Bennett, Martina McBride, Cyndi Lauper, Nelly Furtado, and David Foster to name a few.

Along with being a successful salon owner, Craig has also been featured in a wide range of local shows and productions in Newfoundland. Sharpe especially loves performing in Newfoundland, as he says, "There is no better audience".