

Jeffrey Taylor, Tenor, was born and raised in St. John's, Newfoundland and Labrador. He holds a Master of Music in Vocal and Opera Performance from the Royal Northern College of Music in Manchester, England, and earned his Bachelor of Music in Vocal Performance from Memorial University of Newfoundland.

Jeffrey operates a busy private music studio in St. John's where he teaches both voice and piano to children and adults of all ages. Jeffrey is the Music Director at King's Bridge Montessori School, an examiner with Conservatory Canada, and an adjudicator for local festivals.

Jeffrey's performing career spans both Canada and the United Kingdom performing in operas, opera galas, oratorio, recitals, concerts, and musicals. He has performed many times with the Newfoundland Symphony Orchestra (NSO) as the Tenor soloist for Haydn's Seven Last Words of Christ, NSO's annual "Big Ticket" benefit concert, Salve Regina, and most recently was the Tenor soloist in the Masterworks 4 concert, "The Armed Man".

Jeffrey is thrilled to be performing once again with the NSO, as the Tenor soloist for Mozart's Mass in C Major, K. 137 (Coronation Mass). He hopes you enjoy the concert and join in celebrating Marc David's Au Revoir, after over 30 years with the NSO.
